

Race Relations in the Natural State, ADE Approved Textbook Available from Butler Center Books

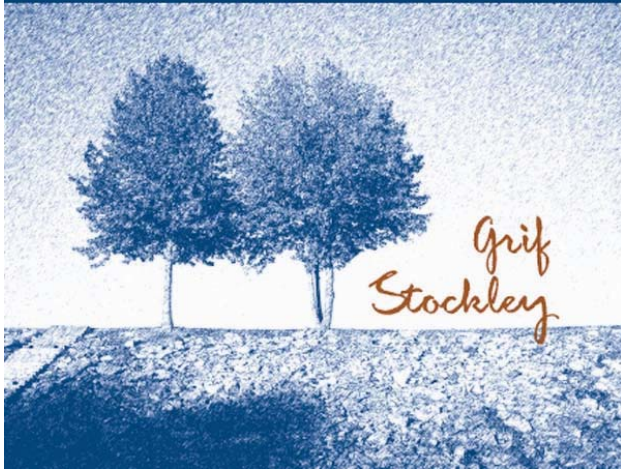

Distributed by University of Arkansas Press <http://www.uapress.com/titles/butler/butler.html>

All lesson plans utilize a timeline, have worksheets, and are available for free from the digital collections link at www.butlercenter.org. Lessons are supported with text and media from www.enclyclopediaofArkansas.net (Grif Stockley, Author; Carla Tindell, Lesson Plan Writer)

Chapter	Essential Information About Chapter	Lesson Plan To Accompany Chapter	Essential Teacher Led Lesson Plan Activity
Introduction	Refers to UALR Racial Attitudes Survey	"Face It to Fix It"	Complete /Compare Student Surveys
Chapter One: "Voices of Slavery"	Uses Information from "Slave Narratives"	"Justifying Slavery"	Organize Information in Essay
Chapter Two: Secession and the Civil War	Uses quote: "most divisive/destructive event in AR history"	"This Is News"	Role Play as Civil War Reporter; Write Newspaper Article
Chapter Three: Reconstruction	Describes Treatment of "Freedpersons"	"A Whole New World"	Compare Pre & Post Civil War Treatment Slaves/Freedpersons
Chapter Four: An Unnatural Death – The End of Reconstruction	Refers to "Redeemers" as Democrats Who Resumed Control of "Labor Pool"	"Charting Changes"	Complete Essay Based on Research/Describe the Redeemer Era in Terms of Complexity
Chapter Five: The Coming of Jim Crow	Describes Legislative Acts Which Segregated Blacks from Whites	"Jim Crow Is Here!"	Use Guided Reading Activity As Review of the Segregation Acts
Chapter Six: Creeping Toward the Abyss-The 1919 Elaine Race Massacres	Explains Post World War I Reactions and Actions Leading Up to 1919 Race Massacres	"The Elaine Twelve"	Use Writing Prompts for Letter Writing; Create T-Shirts to Support Elaine 12
Chapter Seven: Mass Movements and the Fight for Justice	Contrasts Black and White Experiences During Depression	"Keep 'Em Hungry"	Complete Timeline Write Paragraph, Answer Questions
Chapter Eight: Brown V Board of Education and Arkansas Civil Rights Movement	Explains Desegregation Through Guidelines Established in Supreme Court Cases During Time after WWII	"Walk In My Shoes"	After Research, Use Journal Writing Prompts to Describe Events About Little Rock Nine.
Chapter Nine: The Civil Rights Movement Since 1960	Describes Efforts to Organize Civil Rights Activities	"How Do We Fix It?"	Complete Essay Using Writing Prompt Based on Research
Chapter Ten: Immigrants Living and Working in Arkansas	Refers to Rockefeller Report on Positive Economic Impact of Hispanic Immigration	"Otra Ves – Again"	Compare/Contrast Various Populations by Counties & Review Varying Experiences

Race Relations

in the Natural State

For more information on this correlation, contact

Kay Bland, Educator, Butler Center/CALS at

Kbland@cals.org.